

Misquoted: The Most Misused Verses of the Bible
Jeremiah 29:11 "I've Got A Plan For You!"
August 15, 2021

The Claim

- ★ God has promised a wonderful plan for all Christians which includes _____, peace, and _____.

The Context

Jeremiah 29:1-14

Jeremiah 29:11 is written _____ you but not _____ you.

- Jeremiah 29:11 is part of a letter written by the Prophet Jeremiah to the Jewish Exiles in Babylon reminding them that their captivity would be _____ but not _____.
- Not every _____ in the Bible is specifically intended for NT believers.

The Correct Explanation

- ~ God promises to bring Judah _____ to their land; therefore, the Jewish exiles had a future and a hope.
- ~ Written to specific group of people during a difficult time, with _____ news and _____ news.

Jeremiah 29:11 Applications for Today

- God is the ultimate _____ Keeper.
- God is always _____, and life is often _____.
- God takes _____ seriously.
- God through Christ will honor his _____ covenant with believers.

Misquoted: The Most Misused Verses of the Bible
Jeremiah 29:11 "I've Got A Plan For You!"
August 15, 2021

The Claim

- ★ God has promised a wonderful plan for all Christians which includes _____, peace, and _____.

The Context

Jeremiah 29:1-14

Jeremiah 29:11 is written _____ you but not _____ you.

- Jeremiah 29:11 is part of a letter written by the Prophet Jeremiah to the Jewish Exiles in Babylon reminding them that their captivity would be _____ but not _____.
- Not every _____ in the Bible is specifically intended for NT believers.

The Correct Explanation

- ~ God promises to bring Judah _____ to their land; therefore, the Jewish exiles had a future and a hope.
- ~ Written to specific group of people during a difficult time, with _____ news and _____ news.

Jeremiah 29:11 Applications for Today

- God is the ultimate _____ Keeper.
- God is always _____, and life is often _____.
- God takes _____ seriously.
- God through Christ will honor his _____ covenant with believers.