Praises

- Highly successful 9 day ministry trip to ME. Connected with all 10 churches as scheduled. Had many great conversations, including getting to know the churches and pastors we serve! We all also enjoyed a time of sightseeing in between meetings.
- Visited an Awana Club in Syracuse. Had lots of fun running their games that night, getting to know the leaders and kids better as well as provisioning some guidance.
- I have connected over the phone with many pastors and Ministry Directors

Prayers

- For the upcoming online event ,Call To Child Discipleship (CCD). This is a special event targeting the churches that are not currently running Awana. The purpose is to encourage them with tools to help them engage in effective discipleship regardless of what ministry they are running and/or to get them excited about running Awana again so that they are doing something to reach their community!
- For the writing of the breakout for the CCD that Doug will be presenting, Deep Discipleship Happens in Small Groups! Discipleship is earned through relationship. Let's walk through together what a small group of interaction with young people could look like. Kids need to know you are authentic, trustworthy and above all, loving. Understanding the three L's will be a tool to help you be successful!
- Kids staying focused on finishing this homeschool season well while the weather warms up and drags them outside.
- We are headed to a conference in MA 5/12-5/17. It's hosted by Songtime USA and I've been invited to present Awana in a breakout session. They cap attendance at 200 for the entire conference so I should be able to connect with many churches.
